About

As a guest speaker, Tom McClean will be a highlight of any conference or event. Tom is an engaging extrovert, speaking about his exciting life of adventure that provides a backdrop for his motivational, inspirational and witty talks.

A renowned Adventurer, Tom became internationally famous for being the first person to row single-handed across the treacherous North Atlantic Ocean and for many other extraordinary Adventures. "Failure is not an Option" is how Tom looks at life and he loves to share this with his audience through tales of his exploits from the SAS to reclaiming Rockall.

Tom has spoken at many leading company conferences throughout the UK and Europe over the past 20 years on several themes: Overcoming Challenges; Reaching Goals; Self Motivation; It is always possible to do more.

CONFERENCE SPEAKER

Do you want to inspire your guests with a speaker with a difference for your next event? Tom McClean is a speaker with a unique outlook on life based on his personal adventures.

The attitude needed for success both in Adventure and Business forms the theme of Tom's Presentations. Tom will work with you to adapt each presentation to fit in with your Conference theme and requirements.

Range of Themes As an Adventurer and Motivational Speaker, Tom McClean's speaking themes include: Meeting the challenge A life of adventure If you think you can, you will I had to dare - rowing the Atlantic alone

Tom offers a superbly illustrated personal Presentation ranging from 45 minutes to 60 minutes. This can include dramatic film footage of his hazardous landing and scaling of Rockall whilst reclaiming it for Britain. He will also lead a spirited question and answer session which is often the highlight of the event!

As an AFTER DINNER and motivational speaker Tom has a fascinating background that adds real strength to his Presentations and Speeches.

Tom is happily married to Jill, and they have two sons, James and Ryan. However, he still finds it hard to resist the call of the oceans, so his family have become part of the crew, providing the logistical and moral support that is so critical to his safety and success.

Testimonials

Thank you Tom for making the presentation entertaining, informative and motivational. Everyone loved your stories and the balance of your presentation, style and humour. It was a pleasure meeting you and I wish you good luck and continued success in your adventures.

Gina Honeysett, MBNA Bank

Tom delivered such a motivating presentation, providing us all with inspiration & living proof of someone who will not say that something 'cannot be done'. Our managers all commented that they not only found the presentation stimulating, but entirely relevant both in our business as Flight Centre and in their personal lives and future development.
