About

John Motson is the voice of football. A veteran of over 1500 games, John has commentated on a spectacular 30 major finals. John's charisma and his ability to keep people listening has led to 'Motty' being described as "an institution".

John Motson has also researched and narrated more than thirty football videos for the BBC as well as writing four books, the most recent being 'Motty's Diary - a year in the Life of a Commentator'.

John Motson's distinctive tones continue to be sought-after for voice-over and promotional work. John's hobbies and interests include, running half marathons, the cinema and reading.

Testimonials

I would just like to pass on my thanks to you for organising John Motson as our guest speaker. Please pass onto John our thanks for not only a great presentation but a fine job as our auctioneer. Everyone had a great evening and it was my personal pleasure to play host to John. He is not only a legend in broadcasting but a real gentleman.

“

John was both friendly and personable and he did a great job presenting the awards and delivering his career anecdotes. What a professional he is, they really don't make them like that anymore and we couldn't have wished for more on the day, he made the event special.
