About

Matt and Darren spent 11 years on Hollyoaks, playing partners in crime Max and OB. After leaving Hollyoaks, they decided to try a spot of guest presenting at V Festival which went really well. Shortly after, Matt and Darren spearheaded a new R.A.F campaign which involved them spending a few days on an airbase taking part in their basic training programme.

At around that point, it was when Matt and Darren got themselves their own show called 'The Versus Chart' on 4Music where they had to fight it out over their favourite pop stars. Through 2008, they hosted their own Saturday morning radio show for Rockfm, called 'The Sat Nav' before deciding to leave so that they could present their first show for T4, 'Red Bull Rivals'.

In 2010, they hosted numerous new shows for 4Music, and did some backstage presenting at T4 On The Beach.
