About

The most recognisable figures in the world of ballroom dance, Anton Du Beke and Erin Boag first made their names in the highly competitive world of international dance competitions as both amateurs and professionals, winning many highly prestigious titles. They were one of the first couples invited to create the hit BBC programme, Strictly Come Dancing in 2004.

As a couple notable appearances include the 2004 Royal Variety Performance, BBC TV's Test the Nation, Celebrity Star Spell, Strictly Dance Fever and Richard and Judy. In 2009 they made a two part show for Sky1 called Ballroom High in which they took teenagers from Eltham South London on an incredible journey culminating in them performing at Blackpool Tower Ballroom. They had the honour to perform at Buckingham Palace for the Not Forgotten Association in 2010.

Their stunning cabaret shows and hosting skills are in constant demand for a wide range of corporate and charity events. have headlined corporate events for clients such as BT, Mercedes-Benz, Coca Cola, Coutts Bank, Virgin Money, LLOYDS TSB, Nestlé, P&O, Everyman, The Henrys, EEIBA and Warwickshire Air Ambulance. They can also be booked for select private functions too!

Events are tailored to meet clients' requirements, with options ranging from spectacular cabarets to team-building events and workshops.

If you're planning your next corporate or private event, be sure to book Anton & Erin to add their trademark magic and sparkle to any occasion. They'll be happy to work with you to make your event inspirational, memorable, and truly successful.
